Pop-up Store Problems

On June 10th the BTS Proof Pop-up opened I got in line as soon as the doors opened, unfortunately so did 500 other people.

When I got there I met talk to a fellow fan she was most excited to buy a poster and a t-shirt me and my mom waited 2 hours their was staff that brought donuts and water which was very nice in “ The locals only summertime heat ” my mom called it.

Meaning it was weather only SoCal residents know.

After finally getting inside it was awesome, they had BTS music playing with purple lights everywhere which is BTS' trademark color I got 2 t-shirts and a hoodie

Bring a friend, Join the crowd, whoever wanna come along.
